SUMMARY

ARCHITECTURE OF BRUTALISM IN SERBIA – HOTEL “ZLATIBOR” IN UŽICE

The Hotel "Zlatibor" in Užice was built by architect Svetlana Radevi Kana. The project was prepared by the Institute for Urban Planning from Užice. The contractor is Construction Company "Zlatibor" from Užice. The hotel is located in the southwestern part of the Partisans Square (between streets Dimitrija Tucovi a, Little Square, Omaldinska and Strahinji a Bana). Floors are Su+Pr+Ga1+-GA2+Me+14sp. The volume of the building is divided into two parts: the lower zone (ground floor, gallery and mezzanine / office facilities) and the upper zone (from the first to the fourteenth floor / guest rooms). A typical base is cruciform. Rooms are grouped by four or two, depending on the orientation. In the center of the building is a communication block. Hotel "Zlatibor" in Užice is among the most important examples of architecture of Brutalism in Yugoslavia.
