Editorial Paper Retraction

We have to inform our respected reading public that, to our deep regret, a case of scientific plagiarism has appeared for in our Journal. This is to notify you that the Editorial Board of the Journal International Review has retracted from publication the following article: “Entrepreneurship Development Policymaking Factors: An exploratory survey of Tourism in Iran” by Jafari Moghaddam Saeed, Zali Mohammad Reza, Sanaeepour Hadi, International Review (2017 No.1-2), pp.73-83. The Publisher would like to reveal that this paper has been rewritten and even verbatim copied from an original paper written by Jafari Moghaddam Saeed, Zali Mohammad Reza, Sanaeepour Hadi ,, “Entrepreneurship Development Policymaking Factors: An exploratory survey of Tourism in Iran,, International Review, ISSN 2217-9739, 2016, iss. 3-4, pp. 111-122. Moreover, no acknowledgements of reference have been made. The Editorial Board asks, therefore, all the respective readers to accept their apology for not having found out this very unfortunate case during the review procedure.

Editorial Board
International Review